

NAMLE

CONFERENCE 2023

The National Association for Media Literacy Education (NAMLE) hosts the largest professional development conference dedicated to media literacy education in the U.S.

Hone in on your practice at NAMLE's annual virtual conference! From Pre-K to Higher Education, Community Education and Libraries, the conference provides valuable resources, technology, teacher practice and pedagogy, assessments, and core concepts of media literacy education. Join hundreds of educators, practitioners, scholars, and concerned citizens on July 14-15, 2023.

Why Join Us?

Learn directly from experts in the field of media literacy education.

Hear new perspectives on education from youth.

Find sessions for all skill levels and disciplines.

Curriculum

Get inspired to implement media literacy education best practices in the classroom.

Convenience

Skip the travel costs and attend sessions virtually from the comfort of home.

Connections

Expand your network with like-minded practitioners, researchers, educators, and more.

Questions? Contact us!

#NAMLE23

conference@namle.net

namleconference.net